Summary: Hiccup finally introduces Astrid to his mother and now she must pass Valka's inspection and personality judgement, making this the most stressed filled moment of Hiccup's relationship: Getting his mother's approval of his girlfriend. A funny and fluff filled short one shot that I made for Hiccstrid with a little bit of Stalka as well :) Read & Review.

Introducing His Lady

Introducing His Lady

Hiccup was beyond nervous as Valka took her first look upon Astrid, she gazed up and down at his girlfriend's body and examined her face as if she was expecting to find a flaw that she didn't like.

"How long have you two been a couple?" Valka finally asked Astrid.

Astrid smiled, "We've been together for five years."

"Wow, that's impressive. Considering the Haddock family have the hardest time admitting that they like a woman to begin with." Valka chuckled, making Stoick and Hiccup puff up in embarrassment and defiance of that statement.

Astrid shifted her weight and moved a piece of hair from her eyes, "Yeah, but he's the sweetest guy I know on Berk and the most committed boyfriend a woman could have."

Hiccup blushed at her statement and smiled, "I knew that you were the one for me ever since we were little Astrid."

"You're just like your father, such the romantic." Valka smiled at her son, "I think your father said something along the same lines when we were dating."

Stoick chuckled, "It was actually on the same day that I decided that I wanted to marry your mother."

"Well, I hope you propose to this young lady son. She sure is a keeper: strong, beautiful, dedicated, kind, and faithful. She has perfect written on her as clearly as her blue eyes." Valka said to Hiccup in approval of Astrid.

Astrid blushed and Hiccup turned a deep shade of crimson, Stoick laughed and Valka chuckled. Hiccup's family approved of Astrid and Hiccup couldn't be happier.
